CONGRATULATIONS

CHA doctors named Boston's Best for 2009

Dr. Karen Hacker, Adolescent Medicine, and the Executive Director at the Institute for Community Health and Dr. David Link, Chief of Pediatrics at the Cambridge Health Alliance and Mount Auburn Hospital and Board member for the Institute for Community Health, were both named to this year's "Top Doctors" list, as published by Boston Magazine.

The list is compiled annually by Castle Connolly Medical Ltd. It is generated through recommendations from "randomly selected" area physicians and the medical leadership of major medical centers, teaching hospitals, and regional medical centers. These individuals nominate physicians in various specialties and subspecialties "to whom you would send members of your family." For more on this process, visit: www.bostonmagazine.com
